

PICTURE PERFECT

We all know a picture is worth a thousand words – and finding the right photographer to tell your story in images can make all the difference. Whether you're looking to get a cosy family photo or a professional headshot, here are two popular photography studios in Singapore.

White Room Studio

Steeped in natural light thanks to its tall and elegant windows, the 2,400-square-foot White Room Studio space has an almost nostalgic character. Located in River Valley and spanning two floors of a colonial Peranakan shophouse, it's one of the most established photography studios in Singapore. With a candid and relaxed portraiture style, the team of family photographers have over 70 years of experience in portraiture – so it's little wonder that families come back year after year to have their memories captured!

A word from a client

Victoria returned to the studio for a family shoot after going there for her first newborn session:

I highly recommend White Room Studio. The photos are great – we have them framed in our house and featured on social media. The talented and professional team takes all the stress and nerves out of the process, and the results are just amazing!
